

Synopsys® free and open-source licensing notices for CDPL CLL software

Document Overview

This document includes licensing information relating to free, open-source, and public-source software (together, the “SOFTWARE”) included with or used while developing Synopsys’s CDPL CLL foundation component software. The terms of the applicable free, open-source, and public-source licenses (each an “OSS LICENSE”) govern Synopsys’s distribution and your use of the SOFTWARE. Synopsys and the third-party authors, licensors, and distributors of the SOFTWARE disclaim all warranties and liability arising from all use and distribution of the SOFTWARE. To the extent the OSS is provided under an agreement with Synopsys that differs from the applicable OSS LICENSE, those terms are offered by Synopsys alone.

Synopsys has reproduced below copyright and other licensing notices appearing within the SOFTWARE. While Synopsys seeks to provide complete and accurate copyright and licensing information for each SOFTWARE package, Synopsys does not represent or warrant that the following information is complete, correct, or error-free. SOFTWARE recipients are encouraged to (a) investigate the identified SOFTWARE packages to confirm the accuracy of the licensing information provided herein and (b) notify Synopsys of any inaccuracies or errors found in this document so that Synopsys may update this document accordingly.

Certain OSS LICENSES (such as the GNU General Public Licenses, GNU Library/Lesser General Public Licenses, Afferro General Public Licenses, Mozilla Public Licenses, Common Development and Distribution Licenses, Common Public License, and Eclipse Public License) require that the source code corresponding to distributed OSS binaries be made available to recipients or other requestors under the terms of the same OSS LICENSE. Recipients or requestors who would like to receive a copy of such corresponding source code should submit a request to Synopsys by post at:

Synopsys
Attn: Open Source Requests
690 East Middlefield Road
Mountain View, CA 94043

Please provide the following information in all submitted OSS requests:

- the OSS packages for which you are requesting source code;
- the Synopsys product (and any available version information) with which the requested OSS packages are distributed;
- an email address at which Synopsys may contact you regarding the request (if available); and
- the postal address for delivery of the requested source code.
